CONGRESSMAN COLMER - FORMALLY ANNOUNCES FOR RE-NOMINATION

Congressman 'Bill' Colmer from Mississippi Gulf Coast District Is Candidate For Primaries This Summer— Has Allied Himself Throughout With President's New Deal-Something About Young Congressman

Congresman Bill Colmer today announces his candidacy for re-election to Congress from the Sixth Congressional District. Mr. Colmer was elected to Congress in 1932 and took the oath of office in March, 1933, at the same time that President Roosevelt assumed his duties as President. He was re-elected in 1934 and is now completing his second term.

The many friends of the young Congressman are proud of the fine record of achievements which he has made in the three and a half years that he has served in the national law-making body. They say, with due deference to those who have represented this district prior to Mr. Colmer's incumbency, that the Sixth Congressional District of Mississippi vestigate claim that this Congres- tures under the oaks at City Park. fice than the distrist has received in the band are doing everything in its entire history. gram, many demands are made band. upon the time of a member of Congress. Many thousands of letters are written to a congressman annually by his constituents, seeking information and assistance. These letters require, in most instances, contacting the various departments of the gavernment. The many and varied governmental projects touching every community and almost every individual in the district prompt many inquiries. The fact that this large volume of correspondence and personal calls upon the time of a member of Congress has been so promptly attended to by the present incumbent has created favorable comment all over the district. Congressman Colmer has devoted his entire time to the duties of his office. He has remained on the job in Washington continuously while Congress was in session, never having missed a day's session of that body. During vacations he has spent his time in his office at his home in Pascagoula and in traveling over the district in order to better serve his constituency. He has never been too busy to see even the humblest constituent of his district. It has been pointed out by those who have visited Washington and who have had an opportunity to observe Congressman Colmer's efforts in Washington that he is as popular and well-liked among his colleagues in Congress as he is among his constituents at home. This in a large measure accounts for his ability to get legislation through the House affecting the interest and welfare of gressional District of Mississippi: islation, said that the vote taken on ust. the amendment offered was not a from Mississippi, Mr. Colmer.

SHORTCUT REOPENED TO TRAFFIC

FTER being closed temporarily to traffic since March of this year during which time the stretch between the Rigolets and Pearlington was reconstructed, the Louisiana-Mississippi Shortcut was reopened to light traffic last Friday morning at 7 o'clock.

Trucks, buses and heavy traffic will not be permitted over the road for some time. This section of the road was originally opened just before Christmes, but failed to stand up and was closed shortly afterward,

News of the reopening of the Shortcut was received with great acclamation by the motoring let us point out that Bay St. Louis, like other public in general, especially our New Orleans neighbors who frequently visit the Mississippi' Coast over the weekend, as the distance from New Orleans to the Gulf Coast is lessened 22 miles by this road.

They come to Bay St. Louis to enjoy our salt water bathing, gulf breezes, boating, fishheat of the city. It is for these reasons many lose anything.

Thousands of cars were noted this weekend as a continuous stream wended its way to Bay St. Louis and across the bi-county highway bridge, some continuing to points beyond.

The lure "to go" will again be satisfied. The Gulf Coast particularly Bay St. Louis and vicinity—are favorites of New Orleans people and as the summer season progresses we will no doubt see a heavy influx of visitors and season residents.

With more than twenty-eight million $50. bonds distributed to more than two and a half million veterans of the World War, and something like ten million additional bonds to be distributed to a half million veterans who have not sent in their adjusted service certificates, the bonus question may be considered settled as far as the national government is concerned.

RAILROADS CAN MAKE THE GRADE. (Gulfport Herald)

ly, John J. Pelley, President of the Association of American Railroads, wrote: "There are difficulties ahead in the way of obtaining . . . a sound state of transportation-plenty of difficulties. If pending bills to reduce the number of cars in trains, to add unneeded men to train crews, or to increase wages and overtime payments by charging the basis of calculation from the present 'standard day' of eight hours to one to six hours. should be enacted into law, all the savings achieved by great investment in better track, longer sidings, stronger bridges, improved cars, more efficient locomotives, better operating methods, would be more than wiped out. There are still great inequalities as between transport and transport by water, air, or highway, treatment for all forms of transport there is no reason to despair of the future of American railroads as privately operated, self-supporting, tax-paying institutions. Give them their fair chance to haul the tonnage, and they can

Mr. Pelley speaks as a man connected with the railroad industry -but what he says could be virtually duplicated, so far as basic principle is concerned, by quoting from statements of unprejudiced experts. Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas. describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother de-cided to give me Carduí. I began to mend. That tired, stuggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." . .
